7/07/2016 12:04:18 Mel Rattue from Watford: Hello from London!

7/07/2016 12:04:58 The Well Project: Welcome everyone!

7/07/2016 12:05:07 Howard Joyce from Michigan: Hi Olivia so glad to hear your voice

7/07/2016 12:05:27 Sarah Jackson from Louisiana: Hi Olivia!

7/07/2016 12:05:36 Pamela Tassin from IL: sound is great!

7/07/2016 12:05:51 Howard Joyce from Michigan: Hi Olivia this is Eva Millhouse

7/07/2016 12:06:34 Karen Blanton from Maryland: Hi Karen Blanto from Frederick County Health Department

7/07/2016 12:06:43 Karen Blanton from Maryland: Blanton

7/07/2016 12:06:51 Pamela Tassin from IL: OMG, thank you for addressing these murders before starting this webinar!

7/07/2016 12:07:12 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: what murders???? I am not following anything :(

7/07/2016 12:07:31 Alexandrina Wong from Antigua: Hello from Antigua

7/07/2016 12:07:58 Sharon Parker from NC: Hello everyone

7/07/2016 12:08:17 Tiommi Luckett from Michigan: Yesterday and today there were two murders of black men at the hands of white police officers in Louisiana and Minnesota

7/07/2016 12:08:47 Naina Khanna from CA: And a third in San Jose CA - an 18 year old

7/07/2016 12:08:49 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: Tiommi - is that related to HIV crime?

7/07/2016 12:09:01 Naina Khanna from CA: Hi Jyoti - it is related to racism and health

7/07/2016 12:09:02 Sarah Jackson from Louisiana: No

7/07/2016 12:09:19 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: gotcha Naina... :)

7/07/2016 12:09:21 Naina Khanna from CA: here in the US racist police brutality is very much connected to the HIV epidemic

7/07/2016 12:09:32 Naina Khanna from CA: We will talk about that a bit today

7/07/2016 12:09:58 Abosede Oladayo from Abuja: Greetings from Nigeria Bose

07/07/2016 12:10:33 Olivia Ford from LA: These issues are absolutely related. There are many intersections between the criminal legal system, the devaluing of Black and Brown people, the trauma of racism, racist policing practices, and the health and safety of people living with HIV. We'll talk about this today!

07/07/2016 12:10:57 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: Thanks Olivia for tyoing it all out. Lotsa love

07/07/2016 12:11:56 Olivia Ford from LA: So much love to you, Jyoti! And to all <3

07/07/2016 12:12:21 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: typing*

07/07/2016 12:17:00 angel stetson from florida: Hello Its Angel S from Sarasota Fl. Sorry I am late

07/07/2016 12:19:17 The Well Project: We are fortunate to be involved with you, Tonia! We are so grateful for your amazing contributions.

07/07/2016 12:22:11 The Well Project: For those who haven't taken it, the pre-test:
https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/WATcH2016_pretest3

07/07/2016 12:25:44 Mandy Hill from Texas: Tonia, I am on to support you. Great job. HPTN scholars unite!

07/07/2016 12:26:18 Rebecca Denison from CA: If the word "always" were not there, I would answer differently.

07/07/2016 12:27:03 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: In India, it is about CLASS DIVIDE - like upper class, middle class and lower class. (treatment similiar to that of racism)

07/07/2016 12:27:46 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: The rich are treated nicely, middle class are listened to sometimes but poor are worse affected

07/07/2016 12:28:29 Sarah Jackson from Louisiana: That is racism.

07/07/2016 12:28:38 Olivia Ford from LA: Thank you all for these important points! Yes, class is absolutely also a system that values some lives over others - these are intersectional issues.

07/07/2016 12:29:08 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: I see..... it is really a learning topic for me. Glad to be here

07/07/2016 12:29:42 The Well Project: We are so glad you are here, too, Jo, too! Sending you lots of love. <3

07/07/2016 12:29:50 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: <3 <3

07/07/2016 12:31:11 Mel Rattue from Watford: Not just American history this is global

07/07/2016 12:31:50 Mel Rattue from Watford: Great Britain, the Empire was built on racism

07/07/2016 12:32:36 Olivia Ford from LA: YES! Absolutely. By no means is racism a US invention.

07/07/2016 12:32:47 The Well Project: Very true Mel

07/07/2016 12:36:55 Gina Brown from LA: Thank you, Naina!

07/07/2016 12:37:19 Pamela Tassin from IL: on target!

07/07/2016 12:37:23 NAIMAH MUHAMMAD-O'NEAL from Ohio: this is a great conversation!

07/07/2016 12:37:32 Mandy Hill from Texas: Definitely!!

07/07/2016 12:37:41 Sarah Jackson from Louisiana: Hello Gina!

07/07/2016 12:37:44 Martha Lang from Rhode Island: As a white cisgender HIV+ woman I am very aware that I remain alive and healthy as a result of preferential medical treatment.

07/07/2016 12:38:03 Gina Brown from LA: Hi Sarah :)

07/07/2016 12:38:13 Mandy Hill from Texas: I really appreciate the speaker acknowledging that other minorities with white skin benefit from racism that demonizes dark skin! Excellent component to the conversation no racism!

07/07/2016 12:38:51 Mandy Hill from Texas: Wow Martha. Thank you for acknowledging how white privilege impacts health care of HIV positive individuals!

07/07/2016 12:39:18 Mandy Hill from Texas: Let's get comfortable talking about it!

07/07/2016 12:39:45 Maura Riordan from California: Love Naina's point . . . being anti-racist is not a passive stance! Really good reminder.

07/07/2016 12:40:08 Martha Lang from Rhode Island: Agreed, Mandy Hill.

07/07/2016 12:40:27 Abosede Oladayo from Abuja: How can one bridge this big gap on racism?

07/07/2016 12:40:47 Gina Brown from LA: We need to talk about race without the stereotypes.

07/07/2016 12:41:15 Mandy Hill from Texas: Intersectionality is KEY!!!!

07/07/2016 12:42:10 Gina Brown from LA: I have 2 degrees and am still treated as if I don't have a brain.

07/07/2016 12:42:43 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: Gina :(

07/07/2016 12:42:44 Mandy Hill from Texas: Gina, what do you think are the most significant biases for the way you are treated? race? gender? age?

07/07/2016 12:43:14 Pamela Tassin from IL: simultaneous...great point

07/07/2016 12:43:20 Sarah Jackson from Louisiana: When you're educated, you'd think that would make a difference, but it doesn't.

07/07/2016 12:43:35 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: Correct Sarah.....bang on!!

07/07/2016 12:43:42 Mandy Hill from Texas: What do you mean Sarah? It doesn't make a difference in what way?

07/07/2016 12:43:57 Gina Brown from LA: Even with all the issues I deal with as a black woman, I still love the skin I'm in! Mandy, I think it's more about race than anything else.

07/07/2016 12:44:06 The Well Project: Really happy to see this chat happening. Thank you for everyone's participation--as well as our amazing presenters.

07/07/2016 12:44:18 Tiommi Lockett from Michigan: Yes ma'am Gina. I'm workin on my second. But sometimes I ask myself what's the point.

07/07/2016 12:44:54 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: Mandy, no matter how educated one is, it is difficult to find a job in India.....then what to speak about me who is still looking since 2 years

07/07/2016 12:44:57 Gina Brown from LA: Do it for you, Tiommi!

07/07/2016 12:45:03 Mandy Hill from Texas: Gina, I agree with you. I too am an African American woman, less than 40, in academia dominated by White older men. I too think race is the largest driver.

07/07/2016 12:45:05 Mel Rattue from Watford: Tiommi education is the key!

07/07/2016 12:45:05 Sarah Jackson from Louisiana: A highly educated Black woman can as Gina said have 2 or 3 degrees and people will still treat you as though you are dumb.

07/07/2016 12:45:48 Maura Riordan from California: I love some of the amazing men in the HIV movement who credit the black feminist movement for helping shape thier activism . . . Yolo Akili Robinson, Kenyon Farrow, etc

07/07/2016 12:45:56 Martha Lang from Rhode Island: Yes and doctors defer to me because of my whiteness

07/07/2016 12:45:59 Abosedo Oladayo from Abuja: for me this is new 07/07/2016 12:46:07 Mandy Hill from Texas: Oh wow Jyoti. Thank you for sharing this international perspective with employment. Your contribution is greatly appreciated. We empathize with you! Keep striving. don't give up.

07/07/2016 12:46:07 Kenita Placide from Saint Lucia: sensitisation and awareness makes a difference

07/07/2016 12:47:29 Olivia Ford from LA: Aryah Lester's powerful blog entry. Hope Aryah is here today to perhaps say a few words at the end of our presentation, about what inspired this writing. <3

07/07/2016 12:48:11 The Well Project: Aryah--are you on?

07/07/2016 12:49:29 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: Mandy <3

07/07/2016 12:49:47 Pamela Tassin from IL: get them there; listen!

07/07/2016 12:53:19 Sarah Jackson from Louisiana: Thank you so much Naina!

07/07/2016 12:53:31 Loren Jones from CA: When I first starting doing HIV advocacy work about 25-30 years ago it was very surprising and hurtful to be praised by both whites and blacks simply for being well spoken and "literate" as though that was truly an oddity.

07/07/2016 12:54:24 NAIMAH MUHAMMAD-O'NEAL from Ohio: I never saw being a hetrosexual women has being of a privilege class

07/07/2016 12:54:28 Naina Khanna from CA: Thanks for sharing that Loren. "You're so articulate/literate/your English is so good" - these are all examples of microaggressions.

07/07/2016 12:54:50 Pamela Tassin from IL: hey, loren jones...we're Linkies:-)

07/07/2016 12:55:01 NAIMAH MUHAMMAD-O'NEAL from Ohio: naina great job!!

07/07/2016 12:55:07 Gina Brown from LA: My favorite was the, "but you're different"...different from who and what?

07/07/2016 12:55:53 Pamela Tassin from IL: ...an "expection to your race

07/07/2016 12:55:58 Pamela Tassin from IL: "

07/07/2016 12:56:00 The Well Project: Thank you so muh to both Tonia and Naina for these important presentations and leading very crucial conversations

07/07/2016 12:56:19 The Well Project: ^much

07/07/2016 12:57:46 Olivia Ford from LA: Excellent point. There are many who don't recognize these "compliments" for people being "exceptional" are a key aspect of a racist system

07/07/2016 12:58:25 Pamela Tassin from IL: mel painter great share

07/07/2016 01:01:59 Anna Forbes from MD: Actually, I think one idea we have to address here is that some people DO have more than they deserve. The US is based on the myth that everyone is entitled to "have it all". That just isn't possiible and its an argument used to defend unbridled greed. We need to acknowledge, for example, that ensuring everyone adequate access to health care DOES mean the most privileged among us do have to pay more taxes. Equalizing means less for the top and more for the bottom.

07/07/2016 01:02:32 (Private to Mel Rattue from Watford) - Olivia Ford from LA: Hi Mel! Thank you so much for being here. I cannot wait to hear your voice. Once we start to intro the Q&A I will ask Aryah, and then you, to speak to what inspired the writing of your #BlackLives Matter blog entry - let me know if that works!

07/07/2016 01:05:10 Loren Jones from CA: White priviledge can exist by vertue of one's heritage of generation family connections. Many times when I was on the street which is a truly muultiracial environment, I hung out with poor homeless white females and males who knew that in a true emergency and with a show of repentance that they had a family member they could call to "save" them. In my case as a poor homeless black women from a welfare family, I could not even get a bus ticket or post bail

07/07/2016 01:05:29 Jennie Smith-Camejo from CA: That's a good point Anna. I think in this case it was more specifically around white privilege--which, in and of itself (apart from extreme economic privilege) is really just being treated the way that EVERYONE should be treated, and having access to what should be basic human and civil rights...having equal access to education, health care, employment opportunities, housing, etc.

07/07/2016 01:05:41 Olivia Ford from LA: I am so glad you mentioned that, Anna - challenging systems that privilege some over others doesn't leave the conditions of privileged folks completely static.

07/07/2016 01:06:30 Jennie Smith-Camejo from CA: But because of intersectionality the different types of privilege (and, conversely, oppression) are interrelated of course. The 1% should not even exist as a concept. But everyone should have equal access to the middle class.

07/07/2016 01:06:37 Martha Lang from Rhode Island: Agreed, Anna Forbes, equity does not mean unlimited access for the elite to any form of health care they wish

07/07/2016 01:06:56 Jennie Smith-Camejo from CA: *shouldn't exist as a concept--as in no one should have that much more wealth (and consequently power) than everyone else

07/07/2016 01:07:31 Olivia Ford from LA: And thank you so much for that point, Loren, about access to safety nets even where all folks seem to be sharing an experience. Thank you for charing your experiences as well/

07/07/2016 01:08:57 Olivia Ford from LA: YES! Social media call-out culture is not a strategy for liberation. It doesn't replace day-to-day contact and building real accountability.

07/07/2016 01:09:59 (Private to Presenters) - The Well Project: These are all extremely important points. Thank you, JD!

07/07/2016 01:10:01 Naina Khanna from CA: There are gatherings everywhere today around police accountability and police violence

07/07/2016 01:10:14 Naina Khanna from CA: Folks can look for what's happening in your local area

07/07/2016 01:10:18 The Well Project: These are all extremely important points. Thank you, JD

07/07/2016 01:10:55 Naina Khanna from CA: and at the state level we have to fight back against these "Blue Lives Matter" laws

07/07/2016 01:11:26 Gina Brown from LA: Thanks, JD!

07/07/2016 01:12:57 Sara Semelka from Illinois: I really really appreciate your presentation, JD. As a white person, I have really struggled with how to participate in anti-racist work, and your presentation has offered some solid, thoughtful resources

07/07/2016 01:13:06 Gina Brown from LA: This has been one of my favorite webinars this year. Thank you!!!

07/07/2016 01:13:15 Abosede Oladayo from Abuja: Great JD

07/07/2016 01:13:32 Michelle A. Bryant from Florida: Good Training. I enjoyed it.

07/07/2016 01:13:55 JD Davids: thank you to the Well Project and PWN for the opportunity to participate today! and particularly to Olivia for all her support.

07/07/2016 01:14:07 Pamela Tassin from IL: hey gina brown...definitely agree this has been one of the best

07/07/2016 01:14:09 JD Davids: Thanks Sara

07/07/2016 01:14:13 JD Davids: Thanks Gina

07/07/2016 01:14:28 The Well Project: *6 to unmute. Please remember to keep your phone on mute when not speaking.

07/07/2016 01:14:31 JD Davids: Thanks Abosede!

07/07/2016 01:14:43 Susan Mull from PA: I am now on my andoid phone and now my computerr. Maybe people should be told that it is better to be on the computer. why/ On the phone you dont get to vote. The Speaker from Johns Hopkins was really quiet."

07/07/2016 01:15:09 Kenita Placide from Saint Lucia: This has been some mind provoking presentations so far, THANK YOU

07/07/2016 01:15:23 JD Davids: Loren, Anna, Jennie, Martha! Just catching up on all your comments, such important points and dialogue.

07/07/2016 01:15:23 The Well Project: Thank you, JD, for being another integral part of this webinar and discussion!

07/07/2016 01:15:56 Martha Lang from Rhode Island: Thx JD, it was good to hear you today.

07/07/2016 01:16:11 Maura Riordan from California: Thank you, The Well Project and stellar panel of speakers! This webinar was so worth the time. Not only has it been so helpful in the present, but I'm going to leave with a lot to think about in terms of being truly anti-racist.

07/07/2016 01:16:28 Susan Mull from PA: That was me, Susan Mull.

07/07/2016 01:16:40 Jenna Conley from Pa: absolutely agree maura, thanks to all the amazing speakers.

07/07/2016 01:17:14 Susan Mull from PA: thanks to all the speakers

07/07/2016 01:17:34 The Well Project: Thank you Maura, Gina, Jenna and everyone for the positive feedback. We really hope we can get even more people involved in the conversation and to view the recording.

07/07/2016 01:17:54 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: Love the slides - I will use all these teachings to the most impacted : the "poor" society.....and give them the upper hand

07/07/2016 01:17:57 Maura Riordan from California: AND . . I came on a bit late, so I don't know who is facilitating right now, but she is amazing! So well done.

07/07/2016 01:18:08 (Private to Presenters) - Naina Khanna from CA: Maura - it is the amazing Olivia Ford <3

07/07/2016 01:18:18 Naina Khanna from CA: Maura - it is the amazing Olivia Ford <3

07/07/2016 01:18:19 The Well Project: Thank you Aryah for your comments. I really appreciate you being here.

07/07/2016 01:20:12 Naina Khanna from CA: LOLOL @ Mel :) thank you

07/07/2016 01:20:19 Amanda Mihalko from CA: Thank you all for this amazing presentation. I am looking forward to sharing the recording with colleagues.

07/07/2016 01:20:24 Nicole Lapointe from CA: I missed the first hour of this webinar, due to another meeting. I am so sad! I hope these slides will be shared. Great topic and so important to have these discussions!! Thank You!!

07/07/2016 01:20:27 Naina Khanna from CA: Mel - your comments wre great

07/07/2016 01:20:43 The Well Project: Mel, thank you so much --and that is definitely a great reminder for all of us.

07/07/2016 01:20:45 Maura Riordan from California: Thank you, Mel! What a brave moment, stepping back. A good lesson for this white person!

07/07/2016 01:20:59 Pamela Tassin from IL: much thanks, mel!

07/07/2016 01:21:03 Martha Lang from Rhode Island: thank you Mel! for speaking and for modeling!

07/07/2016 01:21:35 Abosedo Oladayo from Abuja: Thank you Mel

07/07/2016 01:21:38 Pamela Tassin from IL: this webinar is helping me through this troubling day

07/07/2016 01:22:16 Zahra Mohammadi Bolouk from Ontario: Thank you very much! Really good conversation!

07/07/2016 01:24:06 Susan Mull from PA: People cloaked in white privilege need to join in, and realize when we don't speak up we are being complicit with all the racial injustice!

07/07/2016 01:24:19 Kenita Placide from Saint Lucia: my question is to anyone who can answer

07/07/2016 01:24:27 NAIMAH MUHAMMAD-O'NEAL from Ohio: Where we get a copy of the sidles

07/07/2016 01:24:46 Abosedo Oladayo from Abuja: How can we bridge the gap

07/07/2016 01:24:52 Rebecca Denison from CA: I'm available now. Sorry for the delay!

07/07/2016 01:25:11 The Well Project: Kenita, Can you restate your question?

07/07/2016 01:25:21 Jyoti Dhawale from Maharashtra: Thanks for the wonderful presentation. Am logging out.....awaiting for the next webinar <3

07/07/2016 01:25:31 Zahra Mohammadi Bolouk from Ontario: I have seen that people with white privilege practice racism, but don't accept any feedback, and try to ignore by saying that if ... just was not intentional!

07/07/2016 01:25:50 Kenita Placide from Saint Lucia: what do you see as different in person of colour attitude coming from the Caribbean or small island states

07/07/2016 01:26:25 SUSSIE METU from LAGOS: My name is Sussie metu from Lagos Nigeria, I just came into the meeting

07/07/2016 01:26:29 VICKIE LYNN from FL: yes

07/07/2016 01:26:35 Naina Khanna from CA: We can hear you Rebecca!

07/07/2016 01:27:04 Abosede Oladayo from Abuja: Hi Sussie

07/07/2016 01:27:15 Abosede Oladayo from Abuja: welcome

07/07/2016 01:27:18 Shavon Griffin from TX: great webinar

07/07/2016 01:27:21 Susan Mull from PA: HURRAH, to Olivia, Naina, JD, the Johns Hopkins speaker

07/07/2016 01:27:50 VICKIE LYNN from FL: yes, we can still hear you

07/07/2016 01:28:03 The Well Project: To everyone, the recording of this webinar will be available in the coming days, along with the PDF slides, and other resources

07/07/2016 01:28:06 Pamela Tassin from IL: please understand that for african americans and africans throughout the diaspora, that comments, jokes, and jabs about lineage is very awkward and insensitive. most of us are descendents of enslaved africans and do not have the privilege of knowing our familial lineage pre-south

07/07/2016 01:28:23 The Well Project: A message will be sent out to everyone when it is available on The Well Project website.

07/07/2016 01:28:42 Olivia Ford from LA: WORLD, by the way, is Women Organized to Respond to Life-Threatening Disease - based in Oakland. Incredibly powerful, groundbreaking organization led by women living with HIV

07/07/2016 01:29:01 Loren Jones from CA: I am so happy to see that as organizations we are doing more to prepare and allow people of different styles of verbal communication to be at the table. Not to sound "white" or parrot they status quo point in view in a foreign style of expression, but to be heard as who they truly and say what they feel n, not just what we would have them say.

07/07/2016 01:29:06 Naina Khanna from CA: Thanks for sharing that Pamela

07/07/2016 01:29:17 Olivia Ford from LA: Founded by Rebecca and other women living with HIV

07/07/2016 01:29:27 The Well Project: Thank you, Pamela.

07/07/2016 01:30:36 Mandy Hill from Texas: Good example

07/07/2016 01:30:36 Susan Mull from PA: Maybe a speaker should have been engaged from the Southern AIDS COALITION

07/07/2016 01:30:41 Mandy Hill from Texas: Great depiction of white privilege

07/07/2016 01:31:23 Pamela Tassin from IL: the ongoing historical/contemporary narrative of african americans is so integral to what keeps us on edge.

07/07/2016 01:31:54 Susan Mull from PA: Statistics from those 9 southern states should wake us all up

07/07/2016 01:31:58 Mel Rattue from Watford: We are trained to not see it exactly !

07/07/2016 01:31:58 Tonia Poteat, PhD: Hi Susan, I'm a member of SAC. Are there specifics we should discuss on this webinar?

07/07/2016 01:32:20 Pamela Tassin from IL: i saw that rebecca...insane to learn about that

07/07/2016 01:32:34 Amanda Mihalko from CA: "And we're trained to not see it" That quote/idea is so important thinking of privilege.

07/07/2016 01:32:36 Tonia Poteat, PhD: Ah, I see your comments now. Links to those stats are available on TWP website and others.

07/07/2016 01:32:56 Naina Khanna from CA: Thank you Rebecca also

07/07/2016 01:32:59 The Well Project: It is imperative for those of us with privilege to educate others in our circles of privilege and raising awareness

07/07/2016 01:33:46 The Well Project: Thank you Rebecca for sharing.

07/07/2016 01:34:10 Mandy Hill from Texas: Education is important, but lives are being lost DAILY.

07/07/2016 01:34:20 Mandy Hill from Texas: What can we do? What will have impact?

07/07/2016 01:34:32 Mandy Hill from Texas: When Jessie Williams spoke, many Americans wanted him fired.

07/07/2016 01:35:08 Susan Mull from PA: Hi, Tonia Well, just that racism, poverty, and stigma have created the situation of people dying within 5 years of diagnosis This is sad and horrifying- and churches everywhere are still silent

07/07/2016 01:35:09 Mandy Hill from Texas: In spite of lifting voices, movements, advocacy, and petitions, lives are still being lost and cops are being placed on paid administrative leave and reinstated.

07/07/2016 01:36:02 Sarah Jackson from Louisiana: I would like to thank all the presenters, Naina, Olivia so glad to hear your voices.

07/07/2016 01:36:28 Vivienne Treharne from FL: Stellar presentation!

Project: Great point, JD. Thank you--
